BILL SUMMARY

1
2
3 The Bill proposes to amend the Election and Referenda Act, 1980, by eliminating the 4 postal voting system for persons residing outside of the Republic. The Bill proposes for postal
5 votes to apply only to (i) confined voters who are residing in the Republic but are prevented from 6 attending a polling place due to illness or physical disability, and (ii) to those voters who are 7 residing in the Republic but will be outside of the Republic temporarily on the day of the 8 election, and (iii) for special polling places to be located only in the Republic.

9
10 The Bill proposes to amend: (i) Section 154 to eliminate the definitions of postal voter to exclude
11 Marshallese who are residing outside of the Republic; to give a new definition for “confined 12 voters” as those eligible to use postal voting system; (ii) Section 156 to ensure that special
13 polling places for absentee voters are located only in the Republic and not abroad; (iii) Section
14 161 to ensure that postal voting applies only to: (a) those voters who are residing in the Republic
15 but are confined due to illness or physical disability, and (b) to those voters who are outside
16 Republic temporarily on Election Day; (iv) to reduce the receiving dates for postmarked
17 covering envelopes to be received not later than seven (7) days after the election.

18
19 The objectives of this proposed legislation are to:

20 (1) allow Marshallese citizens who are tax-payers and residing on the Islands to 21 determine the person or persons to represent them in their Constituencies;

22 (2) to eliminate improper filing of postal affidavits in order to safe guard the authenticity
23 of the voters ballot;

1 (3) to expedite the counting and tabulation of ballots, to avoid prolonging the election
2 process; and

3 (4) to lessen the expenses for election in the Marshall Islands.
