AUTOMATIC EXCHANGE OF FINANCIAL ACCOUNT
INFORMATION ACT 2016

AN ACT to implement the RMIs obligations arising under an agreement for the implementation of the international standards of automatic exchange of information in Tax Matters.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE NITIJELA OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE MARSHALL ISLANDS

§501. Short title.

This Act may be cited as the Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information Act 2016.

§502. Interpretation.

- (1) In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
 - (a) “agreement” means:
 - (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters, as amended by the 2010 Protocol, and the Multilateral Competent Authority Agreement on Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information, which together provide for the exchange of information on an automatic basis as described in the Standard, signed by the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands, as amended from time to time; or

- (ii) any other agreement or arrangement between the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands and the government of another country which makes provisions corresponding, or substantially similar, to that made by the agreement referred to in paragraph (1)(a)(i), including an intergovernmental agreement between the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands and the Government of the United States of America to implement FATCA;
 - (b) “designated person” means, with respect to any function, the person of the Ministry of Finance designated to carry out that function;
 - (c) “FATCA” means the provisions commonly known as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, within the United States of America Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act;
 - (d) “information return” means a report, setting out certain information as specified by regulations made under this Chapter, which a reporting financial institution is required to file with the Secretary;
 - (e) “Minister” means the Minister of Finance or his designee, including but not limited to the Secretary of Finance;
 - (f) “Secretary” means the Secretary of Finance;
 - (g) “Standard” or “CRS” means the Common Reporting Standard, including the Commentaries thereon, approved by the Council of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development on 15 July 2014, which contains reporting and due diligence procedures for the exchange of information on an automatic basis, as amended from time to time.
- (2) In this Chapter, “financial account” has the meaning given that expression by Section VIII of the Standard.
 - (3) For the purposes of this Chapter, the Standard is to be read as if the definition “Reporting Financial Institution” in subparagraph A(1) of Section VIII of the Standard read as follows:
 - (4) The term “Reporting Financial Institution” means any Republic of the Marshall Islands Financial Institution that is not a non-reporting financial institution. The term “Republic of the Marshall Islands

Financial Institution” means: (i) any Financial Institution that is resident in Republic of the Marshall Islands, but excludes any branch of that Financial Institution that is located outside of Republic of the Marshall Islands; and (ii) any branch of a Financial Institution that is not resident in Republic of the Marshall Islands, if that branch is located in Republic of the Marshall Islands.

§503. Objectives.

The objectives of this Chapter are:

- (a) to provide for the implementation of the CRS and automatic exchange of information between the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands and any other government with which it reached an agreement;
- (b) to provide for the implementation of the Republic of the Marshall Islands FATCA agreement with the United States of America; and
- (c) otherwise to facilitate the automatic exchange of information between the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands and other foreign governments.

§504. Powers of the Minister.

The Minister shall have the authority to take any and all steps necessary to implement the objectives of this Chapter.

§505 Agreement – force of law.

Any properly executed agreement shall have the force of law in the Republic of the Marshall Islands.

§506. Inconsistent laws.

In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Chapter or an agreement and the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Chapter or the agreement prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

§507. Information returns by financial institutions.

Every reporting financial institution shall collect and report certain information in respect of certain financial accounts as specified by regulations made pursuant to this Chapter.

§508. Functions and powers of the Secretary

- (1) The Secretary, subject to the general directions of the Minister, shall generally administer and enforce compliance with the provisions of the agreement, this Chapter, and any regulations made pursuant to this Chapter.
- (2) The Secretary may exercise all powers vested in him or her under Title 48 of the Marshall Islands Revised Code, the tax laws of the Republic of the Marshall Islands, to administer and enforce compliance with the provisions of the agreement, this Chapter, and any regulations made pursuant to this Chapter.
- (3) The Secretary may delegate, in writing, to any designated person any power or duty conferred on the Secretary by this Chapter.
- (4) The Secretary ~~or~~ any designated person may request information from and, at all reasonable times, enter any premises or place of business of a reporting financial institution for the purposes of:
 - (a) determining whether information:
 - (i) included in an information return made under the regulations by the reporting financial institution is correct and complete; or
 - (ii) not included in an information return was correctly not included; or
 - (b) examining the procedures put in place by the reporting ~~financial institution~~ for the purposes of ensuring compliance with that institution's obligations under this Chapter and the regulations.

§509. Confidentiality.

- (1) The Income Tax Act, 48 MIRC Chapter 1, Banking Act, 17 MIRC Chapter 1, or any other law relating to confidentiality shall not apply to the disclosure of information by a reporting financial institution to the Secretary that is required to be included in an information return filed under this Chapter or the regulations made pursuant to this Chapter and, accordingly, this section shall apply to information to which, but for this subsection, the said Acts or other law would apply.

- (2) Every person – having an official duty or being employed in the administration or enforcement of this Chapter or the regulations made under this Chapter or any person who formerly had a duty or was formerly so employed in the administration or enforcement of this Chapter or the regulations made under this Chapter – shall treat information received from a reporting financial institution under this Chapter or those regulations as confidential and shall only disclose such information as may be necessary for the purpose of the administration or enforcement of the agreement, this Chapter, or under those regulations.
- (3) A person who discloses or divulges any information or produces any document relating to the information received from a reporting financial institution under this Chapter or the regulations made pursuant to this Chapter in contravention of subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable to a fine of $1,000, or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

§510. Penalties.

- (1) Every person who fails to comply with a duty or obligation imposed by this Chapter or under regulations made pursuant to this Chapter is liable to a penalty of $500 for each such failure, and the product obtained when $25 is multiplied by the number of days, not exceeding 30 days, during which the failure continues.
- (2) ~~Every reporting~~ financial institution who fails to file an information return as and when required under this Chapter or under the regulations made under this Chapter is liable to a penalty of $500 for each such failure.
- (3) Every person who makes a false statement or omission in respect of any information required to be included on an information return, under this Chapter or under the regulations made under this Chapter, is liable to a penalty of $500 for each such failure, unless in the case of information required in respect of another person, a reasonable effort was made by the person to obtain the information from the other person.

- (4) Every reporting financial institution that fails to file an information return in the manner required under this Chapter or under the regulations made pursuant to this Chapter is liable to a penalty of $500 for each such failure.
- (5) Every person who does not comply with the requirement of the Secretary or a designated person in the exercise or performance of the Secretary or designated person's powers or duties under this Chapter or under any regulations made under this Chapter is liable to a penalty of $500 for each such failure.

§511. Liabilities to penalties.

- (1) Liability to a penalty under §510 does not arise if the person satisfies the Secretary or designated person that there is a reasonable justification for the failure.
- (2) For the purposes of this Chapter neither of the following is a reasonable excuse:
 - (a) that there is an insufficiency of funds to do something; or
 - (b) that a person relies upon another person to do something.
- (3) If a person had a reasonable excuse for a failure but the excuse has ceased, the person is to be treated as having continued to have the excuse if the failure is remedied without unreasonable delay after the excuse ceased.

§512. Assessment of penalties.

- (1) If a person becomes liable to a penalty under §510, the Secretary or ~~designated person~~ may assess the penalty and, if the penalty is assessed, must notify the person of the assessment.
- (2) An assessment of a penalty under §510(1), (2), (4), or (5) shall be made within the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the person became liable to the penalty.
- (3) Assessment of a penalty under §510(3) must be made:

- (a) within the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the inaccuracy first came to the attention of the Secretary or designated person; and
- (b) within the period of 6 years beginning with the date on which the person became liable to the penalty.

§513. Right to appeal against penalties.

A person may appeal against a penalty assessment:

- (a) on the grounds that liability to a penalty under §510 does not arise; or
- (b) as to the amount of such a penalty.

§514. Procedure on appeal against penalty.

- (1) Notice of an appeal under §513 shall:
 - (a) be provided to the Secretary, in writing, before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which notification under §512 was provided; and
 - (b) set out the grounds of appeal.
- (2) On an appeal under §513(a) that is notified to the Secretary, the Secretary may confirm or cancel the assessment.
- (3) On appeal under §513(b) that is notified to the Secretary, the Secretary may confirm the assessment or substitute another assessment that the Secretary had power to make.
- (4) Subject to §514 and §515, the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 48 MIRC Chapter 1, relating to appeals shall apply in relation to appeals under §513 as they apply in relation to an appeal against a tax assessment.

§515. Enforcement of penalties.

- (1) A penalty under this Act shall be paid to the Ministry of Finance within 30 days after:
