(1) Section 114(5) of the Republic of the Marshall Islands Trust Act of 1994 is hereby amended, and new subsections (7) and (8) are added as follows:

§114. Duties of trustee.

... (5) A trustee shall keep accurate accounts and records of his trusteeship. A trustee shall keep such accounts and records for a period of not less than six (6) years from the date of termination of the trust or the trusteeship, whichever occurs earlier.

... (7) Every trustee of a trust governed by the laws of the Marshall Islands, and every trustee operating in or from within the Marshall Islands, shall obtain and hold:
(a) adequate, accurate, and current information on the identity of the settlor, the trustee(s), the protector (if any), the beneficiaries or class of beneficiaries, and any other natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the trust; and

(b) basic information on other regulated agents of, and service providers to, the trust, including investment advisors or managers, accountants, and tax advisors.

(8) Information held pursuant to this subsection (7) shall be kept accurate and as up to date as possible, shall be updated on a timely basis, and shall be maintained for at least six (6) years after the trustee’s involvement with the trust ceases.

(2) Section 122 of the Republic of the Marshall Islands Trust Act of 1994 is hereby amended as follows:

§122. Duty of trustee to provide information.

(1) A trustee shall, so far as is reasonable and within a reasonable time of receiving a request in writing to that effect, provide full and accurate information as to the state and amount of the trust property, including the accounts of the trust, and subject to subsection (2), the conduct of the trust administration to:

(a) the Court;

(b) subject to the terms of the trust, the settlor; and

(c) subject to the terms of the trust on the timing and method of informing beneficiaries of their entitlement under a trust, any beneficiary of the trust who is of full age and capacity, or if a minor, to his lawful guardian or representative.

(2) Subject to the terms of the trust and subject to any order of the Court, a trustee shall not be required to disclose to any person any document which:

(a) discloses his deliberations as to the manner in which he has exercised a power or discretion or performed a duty conferred or imposed upon him; or

(b) discloses the reason for any particular exercise of such power or discretion or performance of duty or the material upon which such reason shall or might have been based; or
(c) relates to the exercise or proposed exercise of such power or discretion or the performance or proposed performance of such duty.

(3) The duty to inform as provided in this Section shall not arise if the trustee is in possession of information which reasonably demonstrates that those entitled to such information have already been informed or are already aware of such information.

(3) Where in any such transaction or matter as is referred to in paragraph (1), a trustee fails to inform such third party that he is acting as trustee and that party is otherwise unaware of it, the trustee shall:

(a) be personally liable to such third party in respect thereof; and

(b) have a right of recourse to the trust property by way of indemnity against such personal liability, unless the trustee acted in breach of trust.

(4) For purposes of this Section, "third party" means any person who is not a settlor, a trustee, or a beneficiary of the trust and includes, but is not limited to, financial institutions and DNFBPs as defined in the Banking Act 1987, 17 MIRC Ch. 1.
